2008-09 Academic Year

If you intend to enroll at Franklin Pierce Law Center, complete this Financial Supplement Form (FSF) and return it promptly to Franklin Pierce Law Center, Admissions Office, Two White Street, Concord, NH 03301.

Figures shown on this form and forms I-20 and DS-2019 are based on the academic year which begins in August and ends in July. The figures include tuition, fees and estimated living expense for international students for the 2008 - 2009 school year. Students starting in January can expect an incremental change in tuition in August of each year.

You must certify that you will have USD $35,380.00 for tuition and fees and $20,736.00 for living expenses (books, supplies, room, meals, health insurance and incidentals excluding travel expenses) for yourself. Additional funding of $6,000 per year is required for a first dependent and $4,000 for each additional dependent entering the United States. In order for Form I-20 or DS-2019 to be issued, the Admissions Office must receive three (3) items: (1) a completed FSF, (2) a currently dated and signed original letter from your bank certifying financial information, and (3) the deposit reserving your place in the academic program.

If your program of study is longer than twelve months, you should be able to certify, at the beginning of each successive term, that funds are available for tuition, fees and living expenses. There must be $5,000 readily available at the beginning of each semester for fees, room and board and health insurance. When indicating sources of financial support, you may not supplement your funds by including anticipated future wages earned from employment in the US. Dependents of F-1 or J-1 visa holders are not permitted to work in the US, under any circumstances, unless they seek a change in visa status.
